

Do you want to join our team of professionals, gain experience and develop new skills?

If your answer is Yes, why not become freelance IELTS examiner and work for the British Council in Sudan?

IELTS is the International English Language Testing System. Thousands of people in 120 countries are now using IELTS to open doors throughout the English speaking world and beyond. IELTS is one of the fastest growing English language tests in the world, and close to 5,000 educational institutions, agencies & professional organisations around the world recognise IELTS scores as a trusted and valid indicator of ability to communicate in English.

We are looking for suitably qualified and experienced individuals to join our team of freelance IELTS examiners.

You will need:

- An undergraduate degree or a qualification which can be demonstrated to be the equivalent to an undergraduate degree.
- A recognised qualification in Teaching English to Speaking of Other Languages (TESOL).
- At least 3 years full time or equivalent part time teaching experience relevant to TESOL (post -TESOL qualification).
- To have a customer friendly approach.
- To have excellent written and oral communication skills.
- To be willing to work on weekends if required.

What can the British Council in Sudan offer you?

- Training and qualification which is recognised across the world.
- Attractive remuneration.
- A good work environment and a vibrant team of colleagues.
